Letter From the Editor

Twenty years from now I want to open up my high school yearbook and feel 18 again. I want it to bring me back to the adventures, the parties, the drama, the clothes I wore and the friends I made.

This year's book is all about memories. We wanted to create a scrapbook-feeling theme that was reminiscent of 2013-14. We scanned our notebook doodles and old sweaters into the book along with student-made playlists scattered throughout the pages, because nothing can bring you back to a moment like a song. We also organized it by season. Each new section opens with Vineyard scenery in the fall, winter, spring or summer, to represent the personal growth and changes we've made together and as individuals.

Taking on the Editor in Chief title turned out to be a lot of work, but my co-editors made it fun and rewarding. If it weren't for Willoe's innovative ideas, Sane's artistic eye and the help of the entire D-period yearbook team, this book would probably be very small and ugly!

- It's your book MVRHS, and I hope you enjoy it as much as we do!

Sincerely,

Charlotte Benjamin

Co-Editors, Charlotte Benjamin and Willoe Maynard

SPECIAL THANKS TO....

JACK YUEN FOR THE INSANE COVER DESIGN, MS. FORGETTE AND MS. CALDWELL FOR ALL THEIR HELP BEHIND THE SCENES, SENIORS WHO HANDED IN THEIR SENIOR SQUARE MATERIALS ON TIME, COOPERATIVE STUDENTS WHO ALLOWED US TO TAKE THEIR PHOTO AND MR. BAER FOR EVERYTHING!!

CATS!

“CATS was the most successful show we’ve had in years!” -Jan Wightman

“The end result is a spectacular testament to a teamwork effort and a production comparable to a large regional theater production. From the opening chords of the orchestra and the first glimpse of the fully wrought junkyard scene set — complete with a huge abandoned car and a long metal chute — one knows that they’re in for a magical evening.” -MV Times

CHEERLEADERS

The MVRHS Cheerleaders were back on the sidelines this fall, loud and proud, supporting the Varsity football team!! The girls had a great season, cheering, participating in leadership opportunities, community service events, a career evening and so much more! The girls were proud to be part of the effort to bring more school spirit back to the high school and island community at large!!

"The Vineyard swimmers have a new coach at the helm to begin the team's second year as a varsity program. Jon Chatinover is taking over from Robin Luck, who coached the team for the first three seasons. The team competed at the club level for the first two years, before making the leap to varsity in 2012. "Robin liked coaching, but she wanted to spend more time with her family," Mr. Chatinover said. "She still helps with the team's yoga exercises, which the swimmers really enjoy." Coach Chatinover will also be assisted by coaches Leslie Craven, Anthony Devine, and Anne Bollinger, who coaches the Martha's Vineyard YMCA Makos team." -MVTimes

"Sail Martha's Vineyard is proud to have initiated the MVRHS Sailing Team first as a club sport in 1995 and later it became a varsity sport in 2000. Determined to keep kids sailing in the off season, the Fall and Spring HS program has brought students to the next level of sailing and created many marine opportunities for the Island's youth. It is also one of the few sports that is Title IX, where girls and boys compete equally."

Follow Him

WHAT IS FOLLOW ME ACROSS AMERICA?

Follow Me Across America was originally just the domain for my website. I had to think of something catchy that people could remember and then associate with my bike trip.

AS FAR AS THE ACTUAL TRIP GOES, HOW LONG WILL IT TAKE TO BIKE?

I am guessing it will take about two and a half months. (June through August) Riding 80-100 miles a day, including a week or so of rest. The cool thing is--I'm not going to college, so as long as my bank account can support me, I can just keep biking. Then again, I may get sick of being on my bike.

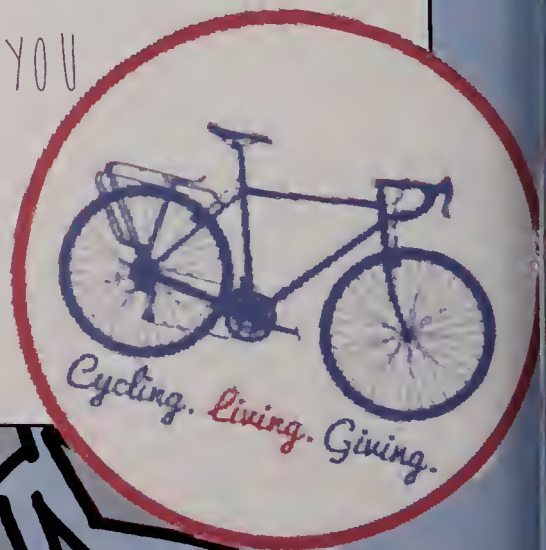

WHAT ARE YOUR MAIN CONCERNS ABOUT ACTUALLY BIKING ACROSS THE US?

Finding a place to sleep every night. I will have a tent, and there are tons of National Parks--so that will be rad. I just don't like the idea of riding into a town at dusk and being like, "Shit. Now I need to find a safe place to sleep..." Especially because I'm on my own, it isn't like I can just stay at a friend's house, I'm not going to know anyone.

DO YOU HAVE ANY DOUBTS YOU WON'T FINISH THE RIDE?

The only thing that would have potential to stop me is an accident, or some extremely rare and amazing opportunity presents itself with incredible clarity that has the ability to... No, nothing will stop me.

THE UNITED STATES IS A COOL PLACE, I'M SURE YOU ARE LOOKING FORWARD TO SEEING SOME SPECIAL PLACES. WHERE ARE YOU MOST EAGER TO VISIT? Glacier National Park. I don't think I really need to elaborate.

Across America

WHY WOULD YOU RATHER DO THIS THAN JUST STAY ON THE ISLAND AND WORK, AND BE WITH EVERYONE ELSE?

Nothing beats real adventure, and seizing opportunities when they present themselves is such an important thing to be able to do. I want to do this now, while I have the time freedom and low list of responsibilities. Also, I'll be 18, so my body can handle it. My Dad said he never stretched once when he did it when he was my age. Imagine someone not stretching and then biking that far in their 40's... Given the average American, They wouldn't make it.

I UNDERSTAND YOU ARE NOT APPLYING FOR COLLEGE, WHY NOT?

Read my senior quote. Also, without going into too much depth...

It isn't how I want to spend four years of my prime youth. I am a better self motivated learner. I complain about school, and always have, way too much to continue dealing with it--especially when I don't know what I want to do with my life. College is always there, this is just a smarter choice for me. The whole idea of education is shifting, I'm clearly just ahead of the times. College would try to plan me, and I think Mr. Rohn is on the money here: "If you don't design your own life plan, chances are you'll fall into someone else's plan. And guess what they have planned for you? Not much."

SO WHAT DO YOU PLAN TO DO AFTER YOUR BIKE TRIP?

Well, I'm going to be broke when I get back to the Island... So I will probably need to work a little bit, and then move off the rock for eternity. Then I'll probably go to Washington and work some more, while I get free rent with my mom, who I haven't lived with since 8th grade--so that would be fun. After saving up enough money, I would then fly to Spain and walk El Camino De Santiago--a 2,000 year old pilgrimage across the whole country. So then I will have biked across the United States, and walked across Spain all by the time I am 20! Hell yeah! That sounds like a much better way than sitting in a classroom in college to "experience something new".

Check out his website! www.followmeacrossamerica.org

Amma Reinthaler

From: Maria Enzerdorf, Austria

Why did you want to come to America?

Because I saw a lot of movies about America and I wanted to see if it was like how it was in the movies... America's really popular in Europe, I don't know! I also wanted to improve my English.

Are you happy you ended up at MVRHS?

Yes because the people are really nice and some of the classes are really fun and not that hard. It's soooo different than my school in Austria.

In Austria you can't pick one single class and you're stuck with the same people, in the same class room, the whole time. Also, you have 16 subjects instead of 8, you don't have sports, and school ends at 4:00, not 2:05.

What's your favorite part about Martha's Vineyard? The people and the beaches, and how it's isolated. We don't have fast food here, which is nice. In Europe people think American's are fat, but the Vineyard's different and I like that!

Any advice to future exchange students?

Be open, and don't be scared to talk to anyone. Join sports, even if you're really bad at them, because it's a great way to meet people. Use every opportunity, and have fun!

What would you say is the hardest part about being an exchange student?

Uhhmm... I don't know.. At the beginning it's hard because you don't know anyone, not even your host family, and you need to make new friends. You need to get used to everything, but once you're here for a while you love it! I don't know, it's just hard because it's different.

Luis Einmeier

From: Weßling, Germany

Why did you want to come to America?

Because of the experience. I wanted to learn the language... At first I wanted to go to Canada, but that didn't really work out, so now I'm here.

Are you happy you ended up at MVRHS?

Yeah, definitely. It's much more chill than my German school and the school day here is way shorter.

What's your favorite part about Martha's Vineyard?

I like the beaches and the people. I like the difference between my home in Germany and this place, I don't have any beaches at home. My host family is really nice and friendly too, it's perfect.

Any advice to future exchange students?

Not really, I mean being an exchange student is cool. Definitely do it if you have the chance.

What would you say is the hardest part about being an exchange student?

You know nobody at first, and doing everything in a different language is hard to get used to.

Why did you want to come to America?

Because it's pretty famous. It's also a really big English speaking country and I want to learn more about English. America also produces a lot of movies, which allowed me to see what the country was like... It seemed like a really fun place for a high schooler.

Are you happy you ended up at MVRHS?

Yes! There are really nice kids, and the teachers seem to like what they are doing, which is different from Spain. There are lots of different classes to choose from here too. Also, I like the school buses! In the city I have to take the subway to school... It sucks.

Any advice for future exchange students?

Be yourself, and try to have a good time. Try new things that your country doesn't have, and make the best of the whole experience!

What's your favorite part about Martha's Vineyard?

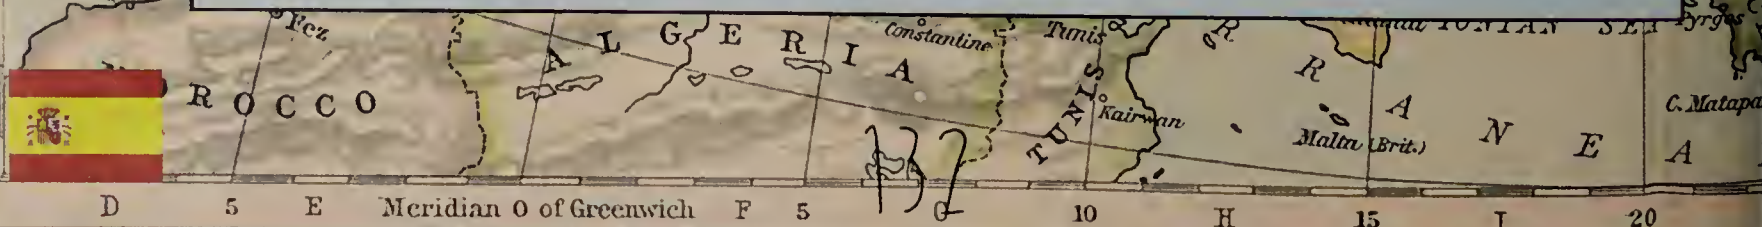

All of it! It's so different from the city. There's less people, and you know them better. In the city everyone's in their own world, but here everyone is so connected.

Archdiocese of Barcelona

What would you say is the hardest part about being an exchange student?

It's hard to get other people to understand what you are saying. Also, you don't know if you are going to get along with your host family, which is pretty scary.
